Modi Lipi Course

Report

Duration : 10 Days

Course Coordinator : Mr. Ganesh Khutwad

Date – From 20-04-2022 to 02-05-2022

The course entitled as “Modi-Lipi Course” was conducted from 20-04-2022 to 02-05-2022. Total 96 students enthusiastically participated in the course. The ten-day Modi-Lipi course was a transformative experience, delving into the intricacies of this ancient script used predominantly for writing Marathi. Over the span of ten days, participants embarked on a captivating journey through the history, structure, and practical application of Modi-Lipi. Each day unfolded with a meticulously crafted curriculum, offering a blend of theoretical insights and hands-on activities. From the initial introduction to Modi-Lipi's historical significance to the advanced techniques of punctuation and formatting, participants were immersed in a rich tapestry of learning. Engaging reading exercises and guest lecturers further enriched their understanding of the script's cultural heritage.

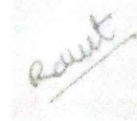

By the course's conclusion, participants emerged with newfound proficiency in reading and writing Modi-Lipi. Beyond the acquisition of skills, they developed a profound appreciation for the script's cultural legacy and its enduring relevance in contemporary society. The ten-day Modi-Lipi course was not merely an educational endeavor but a transformative exploration of linguistic heritage. It fostered a deep connection between participants and the script, igniting a passion for its preservation and continued study.
