Department of Microbiology
Opportunities in Health Care IT
Report

A lecture on Opportunities in Health Care IT was arranged by Department of Microbiology on 15/2/24.

The resource person for the event was Mr. Sagar Bhor, an experienced consultant in the field.

He delivered his talk where in he elaborated on the association of IT with Health care in the present scenario. He welcomed the participation of young microbiologists to this lesser-known field and insisted that the field holds huge opportunities for young microbiologists to take up jobs in this area.

The programme lasted for three hours.

40 students from UG and PG, Microbiology attended the programme.

Vice principal Dr.Rajashree Patwardhan chaired the Programme .

Dr.Pragati Abhyankar coordinated the programme.
