BCA (Science) DEPARTMENT ACTIVITY REPORT

Date: 7 September, 2023

Introduction:

The PowerPoint Presentation Competition, held on 7th September, 2023 was an engaging and intellectually stimulating event that showcased the talents and creativity of the participants. Organized by BCA (Science) department, this competition brought together students from various disciplines to demonstrate their prowess in visual communication and presentation skills. The competition aimed to foster a spirit of innovation and effective communication among the participants.

Objective:

provide a platform for students to harness their presentation skills, critical thinking abilities, and creativity.

Participants were encouraged to research and articulate their ideas effectively while utilizing the power of visual aids to enhance their messages.

This competition also aimed to promote healthy competition, teamwork, and the exchange of knowledge among participants.

Procedure:

The PowerPoint Presentation Competition was executed with meticulous planning and fairness in judging. Here is an overview of the procedures followed:

Announcement and Registration: The competition was announced well in advance, allowing interested students to register. Clear guidelines and topics were provided for participants to choose from.

Selection of Topics: Participants selected their presentation topics within the predefined categories or themes. This ensured a diverse range of subjects and ideas.

Preparation: Participants were given ample time to research and create their PowerPoint presentations. They were encouraged to incorporate relevant visuals, data, and statistics to support their arguments.

Submission and Screening: Participants submitted their presentations by the deadline. A screening panel reviewed the submissions for adherence to guidelines and quality of content.

Competition Day: On the day of the competition, participants were scheduled to present their PowerPoint presentations. They were judged based on criteria such as content, delivery, visual appeal, and audience engagement.

Judging Process: A panel of qualified judges, consisting of 2 experts in relevant fields, evaluated each presentation. The judges provided constructive feedback to help participants improve their skills.

Q&A Session: After each presentation, there was a brief question-and-answer session, allowing the judges to delve deeper into the topic and test the presenter's knowledge.

Scoring and Results: Scores were tallied, and winners were announced based on their overall performance. Prizes and certificates were awarded to the top participants.

Conclusion:

The PowerPoint Presentation Competition was a resounding success, achieving its objectives of promoting effective communication, critical thinking, and creativity among the participants. The competition served as a platform for students to showcase their talents and share valuable insights with their peers and the judging panel. It encouraged participants to develop their research, presentation, and visual communication skills, which are essential in both academic and professional settings. Overall, the competition fostered an atmosphere of learning and healthy competition, leaving participants and attendees enriched with knowledge and inspiration.
