MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MOU) is entered into on 04/10/2023

BETWEEN

Haribhai V. Desai College, Pune the First Party represented herein by its Principal Dr. Rajendra Gurao (hereinafter referred to as 'First Party' the institution which expression, unless excluded by or repugnant to subject or context shall include its successors — in-office, administrators and assigns).

and

Orieath Nature Foundation, Pune the second party represented by its Director, Mr. C. R. Ramaswamy (hereinafter referred to as "Second Party" company which expression, unless excluded by or repugnant to the subject or context shall include its successors — in-office, administrators and assigns),

Together referred to as "the parties"

Purpose of MoU

1. The Purpose of this MoU is to develop cooperation between HVD and ONF in undertaking projects and activities to further the aims of the Parties "Purpose".
2. To focus on knowledge sharing and expertise between parties for mutual benefits
3. To strive towards community awareness and development through collaborative initiatives.

Scope of MOU (Clause 1)

1. The promising students from the institutions could play a key role in environmental management, biological conservation, ecological research, environmental education and other aligned environmental issues. Both parties believe that close cooperation between the two would be of major benefit to the student community to enhance their skills and knowledge.

2. The Second Party will give valuable inputs to the First Party as and when required in teaching/training methodology and suitably customize the curriculum so that the students fit into the biodiversity assessment, wildlife conservation and other environmental issues of concern meaningfully. While the first party will ensure students participation for activities of environmental issues of concern organized by the second party.
3. Biological assessment and Field Visit – Second party & Institution interaction will give an insight into the habitat monitoring, biodiversity assessment and environmental issues of concern in the field; the second party may permit and involve the faculty and students of the first party to visit its ongoing project (only wherever possible), involve selected students as volunteers and/or interns for planned or ongoing programs/projects where ever possible or in certain cases and involve them to conduct dissertation / projects in the concerned field by providing necessary assistance. Students will assist in data collection and survey tasks to the second party in the form of Volunteering, Internship and Dissertation Projects.
4. Workshops for Students: Both parties collaboratively may provide knowledge and train students of the first party in environmental assessment methods by conducting various workshops on the field and off field. The first party will provide space and technical support for off field/classroom sessions.
5. Skill Development Programs: Both parties collaboratively will help the student of the first party to understand the emerging techniques in order to bridge the skill gap and make them ready in the field of biological assessment and ecological restoration. Second party shall involve students as volunteers in rural skill development projects (whenever conducted) to gain knowledge of the socio-environmental dimension and to acquire skills.
6. Guest Lectures: The second party to extend necessary support to deliver guest lectures on important environmental issues to the students of the first party. Whenever Such environmental issues are to be addressed on field, first party will support involvement of staff and students to address the issues on field.
7. Faculty development: The second party shall involve Staff/Departments in their projects for the application of ecological field survey and sampling, social assessment and environmental impact assessment wherever possible for achieving academic excellence.
8. Training Workshops: First party will provide their expertise in the form of lecture or training to stakeholders/trainee under second party and Second party will provide their expertise in the form of lecture or training to students or trainer under first party. By first party for second party and vice versa.

9. Both parties are to obtain all internal approvals, consents, permissions, and licenses (if any) of whatsoever nature required for offering the programs on the terms specified herein.
10. There is no financial commitment on the first party & Second party to take up any program mentioned in the MOU. If there is any financial consideration, it will be dealt with separately.

Clause-2 Intellectual Property: Nothing contained in this MOU shall, by express grant, implication, Estoppels, or otherwise, create in either Party any right, title, interest or license in or to the intellectual property (including but not limited to know-how, inventions, patents, copyrights, and designs) of the other Party.

Clause - 3 Validity:

a) This MOU will remain in force for 3 years commencing from the date of signing of this document. This Agreement will be valid until it is expressly terminated by either party on mutually agreed terms, during which both the Parties, as the case may be, will take effective steps for implementation of this MOU. Any act on the part of either of the Parties after the termination of this Agreement by way of communication, correspondence, etc., shall not be construed as an extension of this MOU.

b) Both Parties may terminate this MOU upon 30 calendar days' notice in writing. In the event of termination, both parties have a discharge from their obligations.

Clause – 4 Relationship between the Parties:

It is expressly agreed that the First Party and Second Party are acting under this MOU as independent contractors and the relationship established under this MOU shall not be construed as a partnership. Neither Party is authorized to use the other Party's name in any way, to make any representation, or create any obligation or liability expressed or implied, on behalf of the other Party, without the prior written consent of the other Party. Neither Party shall have, nor represent itself as having any authority under the terms of this MOU to make agreements of any kind in the name of or binding upon the other Party, to pledge the other Party's credit or to extend credit on behalf of the other Party.

This MOU shall be effective from the date of its signing.
