Activity: Departmental Fest

Report

As part of Aarambh Fest 2023-24, a number of games were arranged for students of all departments by the Department of English. The activities were conducted on the fourth floor in Classroom 407. There was a round during the event by the Principal, Trustees and the Professors who appreciated that there was proper organization and serious effort in place concerning the games.

Grading games as brain work included dictionary word sift, saying tongue twisters, name the poet and writer, using grammar properly in sentence, and many more. The students actively participated in organizing these games with the prior permission and direction of the HOD.

Instructional games motivated, entertained, created fun. Students from every faculty were well exposed and awed by the vast, vast range of the event's creativity and educational aspects.

Conducted on the third day of the Aarambh Fest, the games activity was very enjoyable and fun filled integrating and completing the celebrations. A sense of satisfaction and happiness was felt by the students making the end of the event a success and more so the spirit of the Aarambh Fest.
