MEHENDI COMPETITION

Report

The Mehendi Competition was organized by the Kala Mandal on 22nd March 2024, Friday during the Aarambh Cultural Fest in college for students of all faculties. The competition was organized to enhance the creativity and imagination in the field of art and to develop traditional values among students. The competition began at 10.00 a.m. in classroom no. 407. Respected Principal Dr. Rajendra Gurao, Vice principal Dr. R.B.Patwardhan visited and encouraged the participants.

The participants applied beautiful and unique designs of mehndi and showcased their talent. There were two categories on which their designs were judged. The first was Traditional mehndi in which 26 students participated and another category was Arabic mehndi in which 5 students participated. They were given 60 minutes to complete their mehndi design and were judged on their skills.

This competition helped the students to exhibit their art of applying mehndi which can also be a good source of income and can be converted into an occupation. The Coordinator of the Kala Mandal Dr. Archana Pandit, the Coordinator of the competition Dr. Mrs. Almas Z. Shaikh (Department of Physics), the committee members Ms. Mansi Deshpande (Department of BSc-CS), Ms. Praneeta Suryavanshi (Department of BCA-Sci), Ms. Amruta Deshmukh (Department of BSc-CS), And Ms. Chetana Adatiya (Department of English) contributed to the success of the competition.

Dr. Shraddha Prasad, Associate Professor, Department of Commerce, Dr. Kavita Vasawani, Associate Professor, Department of Commerce, and Ms. Megha Sonawane, Administrative office were invited to judge the Mehendi competition and choose the winners out of the participants as per the criteria of evaluation. The evaluation was done on design, creativity and neatness of mehendi.

This competition develops creativity and art among students. It boosts their confidence in art which can also be a good source of income and can be converted into an occupation. The winners of the competition are as follows:
