Swami Vivekanand and Rajmata Jijau Birth Anniversary and National Youth day

Report

'Swami Vivekanand and Rajmata Jijau Birth Anniversary and National Youth day' was celebrated in H.V. Desai College on 12th January, 2024 at 10.30 am. The programme was coordinated by the Department of English. Total 50 teaching and non-teaching faculties attended this ceremony.

A special morning assembly was held in front of the Principal's Office. The objective was to commemorate the great philosopher and spiritual leader Swami Vivekananda and Rajmata Jijau on their birth anniversary. The programme was anchored by Ms. Nishta Gangupeth(F.Y.B.Com). It began with paying homage, the office superintendent Mr. B.V. Kulkarni paid tribute by offering garlands and flowers to the photograph of Swami Vivekanand and Mrs. Megha Sonavane paid tribute by offering garlands and flowers to the photograph of Rajmata Jijau.

Ms. Aishwarya Mahajan, student of F.Y.B.Com, expressed her views on spiritual and divine thoughts of Swami Vivekanda in her speech. She narrated the life of Swami Vivekanand and also stated the importance of his famous speech at the World Parliament of Religions in Chicago. The office superintendent Mr. B.V. Kulkarni expressed his thoughts and enlightened all with his speech about Rajmata Jijau. He recalled her pivotal role in shaping Shivaji's character and instilling values of justice, freedom and courage in him. He praised Jijamata's wisdom, determination, and maternal love and also highlighted her unparalleled greatness in history.
