The workshop commenced with an engaging speech on Political Journalism delivered by the renowned journalist, Mr. Deepak Jadhav. Mr. Jadhav, with his years of experience in the field, provided students with valuable insights into the world of political reporting. He emphasized the crucial role of journalists in keeping the public informed about political developments, shedding light on how the media influence public opinion and policy decisions.

Mr. Jadhav elaborated on the ethical responsibilities of political journalists, stressing the importance of unbiased reporting and the need to fact-check and verify information before disseminating it to the public. He also highlighted the challenges faced by journalists in today's digital age, where the spread of misinformation and fake news has become a significant concern.

Part 2: Screening of the Classic Marathi Movie "Sinhasan"

The second part of the workshop involved the screening of the classic Marathi movie "Sinhasan." The film, known for its thought-provoking portrayal of political power dynamics, provided students with a visual representation of the intersection between politics and media.
