Half-Day Workshop on Gender Equality and Gender Sensitization

REPORT

Date: 6th March 2019

Time: 9:00 AM - 11:00 AM

Venue: Commerce Lab

Introduction

The Department of Political Science at Haribhai V. Desai College, Pune, organized a Half-Day Workshop on "Gender Equality and Gender Sensitization" on the 6th of March 2019. The aim of the workshop was to create awareness about gender-related issues, promote gender equality, and sensitize students to the importance of respecting and championing gender rights. The event featured Shri. Anand Pawar, a prominent advocate for gender equality from Samyak Sanstha, Pune, as the keynote speaker, and saw active participation from 109 students.

Event Details

The workshop took place in the Commerce Lab, providing an interactive and engaging environment for discussions and activities. It was scheduled to run from 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM, comprising informative sessions, interactive activities, and a dynamic Q&A segment.

Keynote Speaker - Shri. Anand Pawar

Shri. Anand Pawar, a leading advocate for gender equality, graced the occasion as the keynote speaker. His vast experience and unwavering commitment to gender-related issues made him an apt choice. Shri. Pawar's presence enriched the workshop and brought authenticity to the discussions.

Workshop Highlights

1. Unpacking Gender Equality

Shri. Anand Pawar initiated the workshop by elucidating the concept of gender equality and its pivotal role in contemporary society. He emphasized that gender equality isn't merely a human right but also a fundamental prerequisite for a peaceful, prosperous, and sustainable world.

2. Cultivating Gender Sensitization

The core focus of the workshop was on gender sensitization. Participants engaged in open and respectful discussions, encouraged to challenge stereotypes and biases related to gender roles and identities. Shri. Pawar adeptly guided these discussions, fostering a safe space for reflection and learning.

3. Real-world Case Studies

The workshop incorporated real-world case studies to illustrate the profound impact of gender-based discrimination and stereotypes on individuals' lives. These case studies served as powerful illustrations of the need to address gender-related issues comprehensively.

4. Interactive Learning

The workshop included various interactive activities, such as role-playing scenarios and group discussions. These activities encouraged participants to critically examine their own attitudes and beliefs regarding gender issues, fostering empathy and understanding.

5. Engaging Q&A Session

The workshop culminated in a dynamic question and answer session, where students had the opportunity to seek clarifications, share insights, and ask questions about gender equality and gender sensitization. This segment further enriched the participants' understanding.

Participant Engagement

The workshop witnessed active participation from 109 students. Their enthusiastic engagement in discussions, activities, and the Q&A session demonstrated their commitment to gaining insights into gender-related issues and fostering a more inclusive and equitable society.

Conclusion

The Half-Day Workshop on "Gender Equality and Gender Sensitization" was an enlightening and thought-provoking event organized by the Department of Political Science at Haribhai V. Desai College. It successfully raised awareness about gender-related challenges, promoted gender equality, and sensitized students to the importance of gender rights. The workshop reflected the college's dedication to nurturing an environment that champions inclusivity and equity.
