Report

30/01/2019

Department of English had organized a Guest Lecture on Overseas Education on 29/01/2019 at 10:00am in Commerce Lab to increase awareness among the students regarding education opportunities abroad. Vice-Principal Pandhare in his introductory speech said that students should broaden their horizon and search for the opportunities to study abroad. Total 55 students attended the Guest lecture enthusiastically and were benefited by the same.

The resource person Prof. Nimish Patki in his speech elaborated the importance and opportunities of studying abroad. He said in his speech, Overseas education presents a myriad of opportunities for individuals seeking a broader academic experience and professional growth. It offers exposure to diverse cultures, perspectives, and innovative learning environments, fostering personal development and adaptability. Studying abroad can provide access to specialized programs, cutting-edge research, and top-tier institutions, enhancing one's skill set and knowledge base. Moreover, it cultivates a global network, opening doors to international career prospects and a competitive edge in the job market. The experience of living in a foreign country not only enriches education but also shapes individuals into well-rounded, culturally sensitive global citizens, equipping them to navigate an increasingly interconnected world.

The program ended with vote of thanks proposed by Ms. Shivani.
