Report

30/01/2019

Department of English had organized a Guest Lecture on Career in Journalism on 29/01/2019 at 11:00am in Commerce Lab to increase awareness among the students regarding career opportunities in Journalism. Vice-Principal Pandhare in his introductory speech said that students should broaden their horizon and search for the offbeat opportunities of career as in Journalism. Total 65 students attended the Guest lecture enthusiastically and were benefited by the same.

The resource person Ms. Swati Tupe in her speech elaborated the importance and opportunities in Journalism sector. She said in her speech, a career in journalism offers a dynamic and multifaceted landscape for individuals passionate about storytelling, investigation, and communication. Journalists play a pivotal role in informing, educating, and shaping public opinion. The field encompasses diverse opportunities across various mediums such as print, digital, broadcast, and investigative journalism. With the evolving media landscape, there's an increasing demand for skilled journalists who can adapt to new technologies and storytelling formats. Career paths in journalism offer roles in reporting, editing, broadcasting, photojournalism, investigative journalism, and more. It's a field that constantly challenges individuals to explore new stories, delve into different topics, and contribute to the dissemination of information, making it an exciting and impactful career choice for those who are curious, persistent, and dedicated to truth and transparency.

The program ended with vote of thanks proposed by Ms. Shivani.
