Film Review Writing Workshop

Department of English organized 10 hours 'Film Review Writing Workshop, including Presentation, Competition and Expert Sessions for Under Graduate students.

The Objective: To acquaint students with the literary themes, historical concepts, science fiction, scientific discoveries, and important historical events on the screen. Also, to acquaint the students with the application of literature and New Historical approaches to the making of movie.

The Method: the students were given the task of writing the review of one of the historical movies named; 'Manikarnika'. Also, expert sessions were conducted and given the detailed information about the screenings, types of movies, importance of movies and varied themes in language and literature. Also, they were guided about the literary master pieces are turned into a movie and the series of short stories which helped our students to avail the wide range of opportunities for continuous, academic and personal development through library services.

The Outcome: Students demonstrated that the critical study of cinema informs their filmmaking and that the study and practice of film production enhance their work as film scholars and analysts. Students are able to conduct film research and compose cogent, persuasive, and valid essays about film. Students confirmed a broad knowledge of film history, national cinemas and modes of production. The student watched a movie with the literary analytical mindset and will surely help to develop a new habit of watching a movie with critical approaches
