

The Poona Gujarati Kelvani Mandal's

Haribhai V. Desai College

Institutional Distinctiveness

The college is Linguistic Minority Co-educational Institution catering to the needs of both rural and urban students. The College is centrally located in Pune city and has dedicated and supportive management as well as faculty. The college admits students from backward classes, first generation learners and across all the strata of the society, providing them with an opportunity to grow. The college has well equipped laboratories, central lab, well-stocked central library and departmental libraries along with all sorts of information communication equipment. This help students and teachers play their respective roles in an effective manner. The college organizes several social awareness programmes including natural water resources cleaning, Social awareness through NSS regular activities and winter camp to inculcate the value of labour of dignity. The college takes care of overall personality development of students through soft skill development programs. The college organizes several State/National/International level seminars, workshops and conferences for staff and students to enable them to be rational global citizens.

Officiating Principal
H. V. Desai College,
(Commerce, Arts, Science)
Pune-2.